

A topographic map of Haida Gwaii, British Columbia, Canada. The map is oriented vertically. It features a legend on the right side with three categories: Cedar Archaeology (brown), Cultural Cedar (green), and Logged (yellow). The map shows various areas colored according to these categories, primarily concentrated in the central and northern parts of the islands. The background is a grey topographic relief map.

MAP 2
CEDAR

-  Cedar Archaeology
-  Cultural Cedar
-  Logged

YAH'GUDAANG
HAIDA GWAI

[respect for this place]

HAIDA LAND USE VISION

This map is produced solely for land use planning discussions. The Council of the Haida Nation has not verified that all data are accurate, and it is expected that new information in preparation will result in changes or corrections.

Copyright © Council of the Haida Nation
11 October 2004